

What about Greek and Hellenism?

For centuries Christians have turned to the study of Greek as a way to unpack deeper meaning and true interpretation of the teachings of the Bible. While there's great value in learning Greek and accessing the Biblical texts and other classical literature, this website revolves around the position that all Scripture, the Tanakh (a.k.a. the Old Testament) and the Brit Chadasha (a.k.a. the New Testament) were given to mankind in Hebrew!

This last statement is of such importance to everything you will read here that it behooves us to repeated in a paragraph of its own:

This website revolves around the position that all Scripture, the Tanakh (a.k.a. the Old Testament) and the Brit Chadasha (a.k.a. the New Testament) were given to mankind in Hebrew!

Greek therefore will be considered in light of the above and delegated a secondary place in the way we approach the Sacred Text, which we believe was given in Hebrew.
