

Messianic Judaism

Messianic Judaism is the spiritual movement made up of Jews who are people of Jewish heritage who maintain their Jewish identity and acknowledge Yeshua as the Messiah. However, a great number of non-Jews have become part of messianic congregations in a departure from traditional Christianity and a pursuit of understanding the Bible in a way that gives traditional Jewish interpretation a great deal of influence.

The following article gives more detail about what sets apart Messianic Judaism from the traditional Christian expressions of faith:
